EXAM INFORMATION

- Where possible, a 1 hour 40 minute long revision session is planned before each exam (NEXT SLIDE!!)
- Otherwise learners continue to attend their timetabled lessons
- Revision rooms will be in place for subjects where the exam has already been sat
- Go to lines at the bottom of the steps up to the field each morning.
- Take your bag with you and leave outside of exam room (sports hall changing rooms).
- Absent learners will be contacted ASAP

COLLAPSED YEAR 11 TIMETABLE

- In order to ensure you have time with your subject teachers right before you have an exam, we have changed the timetable.
- All 7 weeks of exam season have been altered.
- As an example, if you have a maths exam at 1pm (period 5-6), you won't go to your normal period 3 and 4 lessons, you will go to your maths teacher instead... provided you're not in another exam.
- Another example would be if you had an English exam at 9am, you would be with your English teacher for periods 5 and 6 the day before... provided you're not in another exam.
- Each week we will communicate the plan to you, so you know where to go and when. There will also be daily reminders in lines and from tutors.

YOUR NEW TIMETABLE

- So, on Wednesday, if you take Sport or Media, you follow your normal timetable until period 3, when you go to Sport or Media instead of Science and English, as you have a Sport or Media exam that afternoon.
- If you don't take Sport or Media, then go to Science and English as normal.

PUNCTUALITY AND ABSENCE

- If a learner is significantly late to an exam, they will not be admitted
- However, even being 5 minutes late disrupts the other learners
- If you are ill, you must inform the school before the exam is due to start. Notifications received afterwards won't count.
- Unless it is absolutely impossible for your child to attend, they should always try to sit their exams.
- To apply for special consideration due to illness, we will need formal medical evidence.
- Unforeseen absences such as funerals or bereavements, you must contact the school as soon as possible. You may be able to sit your exam earlier or later in the day.

EQUIPMENT AND UNIFORM

- You must come prepared! Full school uniform must be worn for all exams.
- Black pens!!! Bring at least 2. Remember ruler, calculators etc if relevant to an exam.
- You must not use tippex or gel pens
- You can use highlighters but you must not highlight your answer.
- Clear plastic pencil cases only.
- Photo card school IDs will need to be taken into the exam. You will need the photos on them to be uncovered (some in the mocks had stickers over the photo) and there to be no writing on them (this could be considered a note).

IMPORTANT REMINDERS AND TOILET ETIQUETTE

- Scientific calculators need to have their memory "cleared" prior to each exam they are used in.
- If you're required to sign your name on the cover of your exam paper, please remember to do so when prompted.
- Leaving exams to go the toilet is not permitted in the first 30 minutes or last 15 minutes of exams. No going to the toilet at all in exams where audio is played (Media or MFL). Learners with specific medical need are of course exempt from this rule.
- Learners have to be escorted to the toilet, one at a time. In some rooms they will have to wait for the roving invigilator to come.
- This is very disruptive to other learners so must be kept to a minimum and should only happen in longer exams.

DRINKS

- Only water in a clear plastic bottle is permitted

- No fizzy drinks
- No labels on bottles
- No coloured sports bottles
- No 'Love Island' bottles
- Bottles must be free of writing and logos

MALPRACTICE

Do not:

- Cheat
- Use unauthorised notes
- Copy from another student
- Communicate with another student
- Turn around
- Bring a watch or phone in to the venue

All of the above could result in being disqualified from your exams.

MARKING

- The papers are scanned in by the exam boards
- Markers work on screen, not with the actual paper
- Presentation is important, handwriting must be legible
- Do not use tippex or highlighters on your work. Highlighters can be used to highlight key words in the question only.

METACOGNITION

- Metacognition and self-regulation support students to think explicitly about their own learning, giving them specific strategies for planning, monitoring, and evaluating their learning. As they become increasingly more adept, they can then self-select the most suitable approach for the task at hand.

THE POWER OF METACOGNITION

Metacognition is vital for students to thrive in college, in their careers, and in life-long learning. It helps promote autonomy and resiliency. When students improve their metacognitive skills, they are more likely to embrace a Growth Mindset and learn from mistakes.

If we want students to grow into problem-solvers and critical thinkers, we need to help them develop metacognition.
